Christmas Elves Myths

Christmas elves are magical dwarf-like characters also known as Santa's elves. They are Santa Claus' helper and live with him at the North Pole throughout the year. They are small. They have rosy cheeks and long pointy ears. Christmas elves wear a red or green-clad costume and a pointy hat. Christmas elves working at Santa's workshop have lots of duties and responsibilities. For example, they keep an eye on children's behaviour and report back to Santa.
